

NĀ KOA

FOOTBALL CLUB

Courtesy: University of Hawai'i Foundation | San Diego State tailgate

The University of Hawai'i football team prepares for their second conference foe, Boise State.

This Saturday (kickoff at 5 p.m.) is "Hawai'i Heroes Night." UH and game sponsor Heineken welcome all first responders including police, firefighters, paramedics, and lifeguards.

All first responders will receive a 30 percent discount off of tickets. UH marketing will be giving out 1,000 "Hawai'i Heroes" commemorative keychains and 500 white UH branded plastic fire helmets (student section).

Watch for details on a special tailgate for Homecoming on Sat., Oct. 26 vs. Nevada.

NĀ KOA ELECTS OFFICERS

Meet Nā Koa's officers for 2024-25. From left to right in photo:

- DAREN KIMURA (President) - Hawaiian Financial FCU
- RAQUEL LASCONIA (Secretary) - Island Energy
- DARA YOUNG (Vice President) - Kyo-ya/Marriott Hotels
- MIKE LUM (Treasurer) - ML Pacific

www.nakoa.org

Nā Koa is working with the Team's General Manager Keiki Misipeka to host former players before the upcoming home games. Any former players who are interested in learning more about this opportunity to come and support the Hawai'i Warriors at an upcoming home game can reach out to Keiki Misipeka at misipeka@hawaii.edu.

There is a limited number of tickets available for each home game, so please reach out as soon as possible to secure your spot!

WHAT'S COMING UP

10.12 - KLUM'S KORNER
TAILGATE: Starts at 2 p.m.; $35 per person (incl. food & non-alcoholic drinks)

10.26 - HOMECOMING
GAME/TAILGATE VS. NEVADA