Homecoming Week!

Courtesy: University of Hawai'i Athletics

As we celebrate Giving Week and Homecoming, I want to highlight the traditions, pride, and loyalty that define our community. Homecoming is not just a time for festivities; it's a celebration of our shared commitment to the University of Hawai'i and the incredible athletes who represent us on and off the field. This is the time to support your hometown team-- Hawai'i Athletics.

Your support is vital to our mission, providing the resources our student-athletes need to excel. I invite you to consider contributing to Hawai'i Athletics, helping us inspire the next generation of champions.

Mahalo for your continued support. Go 'Bows!
